

Australian College of Sport - Football Program

As a student athlete at the Australian College of Sport (ACS), high performance training and physical preparation in football is delivered in coordination with life skills training, sports science and practical business theory that gives you the ultimate in elite football training on the world stage. There is a sharp focus on individual development, career preparation and lifelong learning. ACS athletes are well prepared for careers in professional sport or related career choices.

Students who successfully complete the ACS Football Program are eligible to be awarded the following two [2] qualifications:

- SIS50612 Diploma of Sport Development
- SIS50115 Diploma of Sport and Recreation Management

Program Duration: 1 year full time, face to face delivery

Program Location: FFSA Football Campus

Course Commencement: July 2017 intake / January 2018 intake *

Anticipated Course Cost: $20,000 - Payment deferral options are available for eligible students. Note: January 2018 intake – cost TBA

Further Study: ACS holds formal articulation with Deakin University and the University of South Australia with credit points awarded towards the following qualifications.

Deakin University:

- Bachelor of Sport Development
- Bachelor of Business (Sport Management)

University of South Australia:

- Bachelor of Business (Management)
- Bachelor of Business (Sport and Recreation Management)

Note: the University of South Australia has online study options available.

Please visit football.collegeofsport.edu.au or call 1300 859 880 for more information.