

PORT BROUGHTON SAILING AND BOAT CLUB Inc.

RE Festival

For a Healthy Life & a Healthy Earth

Friday 24th. May 2019 9am-4pm

Saturday 25th. May 9.30am-3pm

Port Broughton Community Hall Bay Street

Free Admission

Reuse, Resilience, Renew, Recycle, Re educate

This event is to promote and educate about reusable, repurposed & second hand products, healthy products and services for a healthy life mentally & physically for all the family. Ways to protect and re educate about our environment and our oceans.

SEA SHEPHERD AUSTRALIA

Educational Talks and Merchandise for Sale both days.

Stalls, Receive free calico shopping bag & pen

- Information Stalls on Mental Health
- Beyond Blue Information
- Organic Products
- Look in shop windows closer to event for updated details

STALL SITES FREE

Stall holders can be products, services or information. Which can be reusable, recycled, secondhand, goods, products or services for a healthy life physically and mentally for all the family. Anything pertaining to the environment and oceans and any RE words. However, not limited to these categories.

For further information or to make a booking Contact, Trisha Nurk Ph. 08 86352854 E pbsbc@hotmail.com.

This event is funded as part of the Drought Communities Extension Program on behalf of the Dept of Industry, Innovation & Science & Dept of Infrastructure, Regional Developments & Cities.